

BY MEI YU

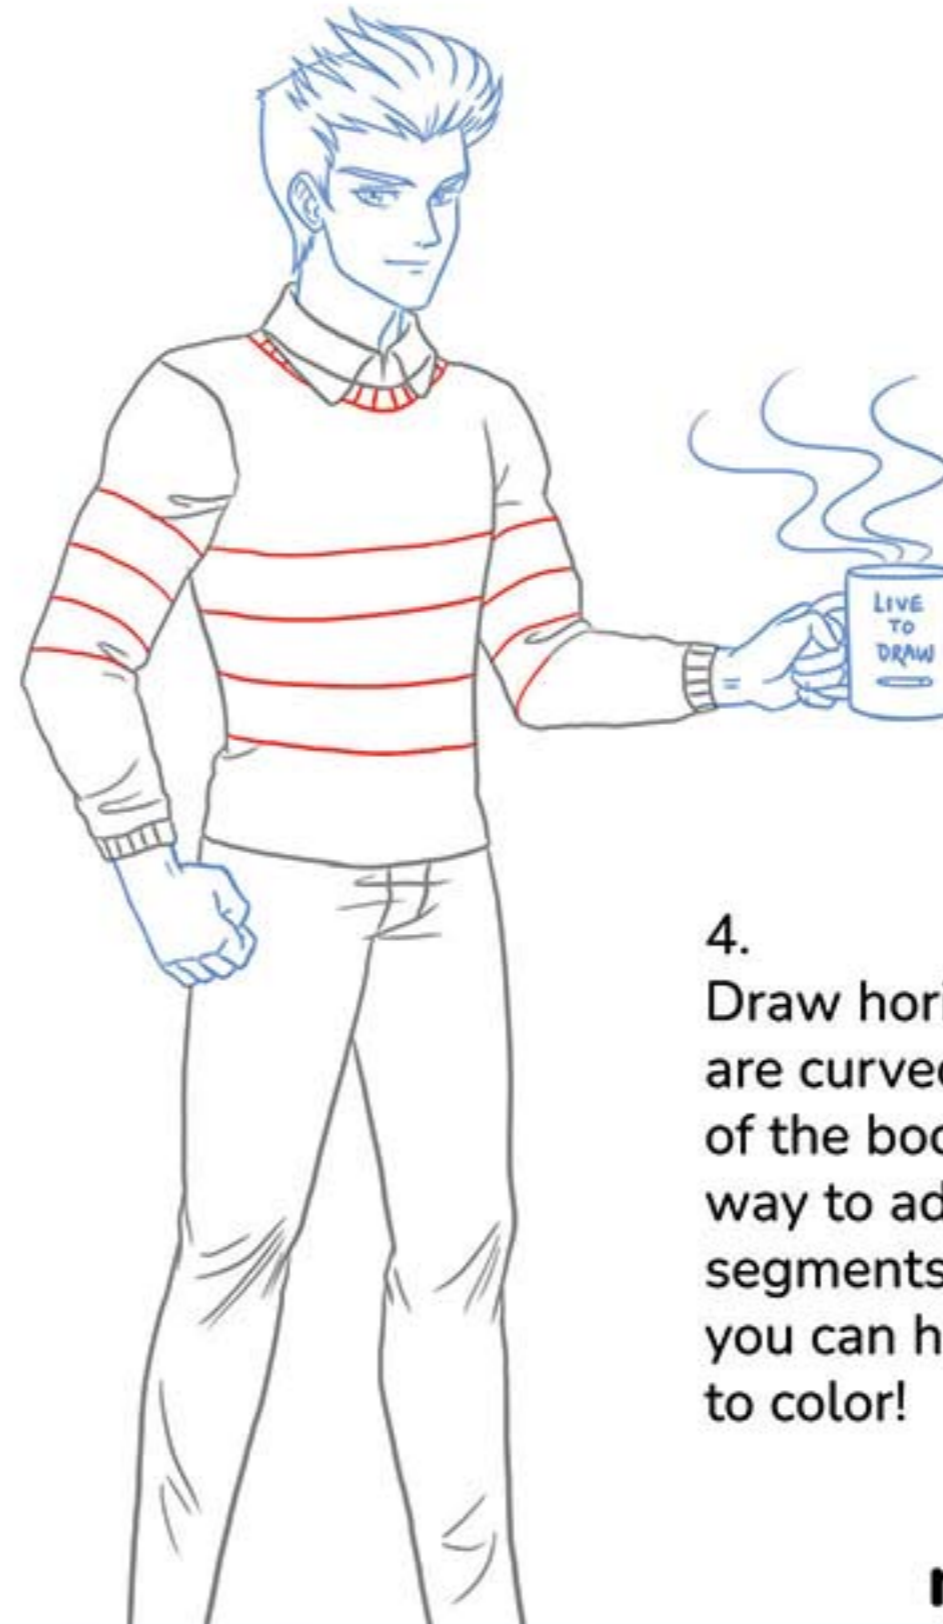

1. Start his sweater with a crewneck, and the front part like a tapered rectangle.

2. Add the sleeves that follow his arms closely. Add pants after.

3. Add a collared shirt under the sweater. Then, draw wrinkle lines in the sleeves and pants.

4. Draw horizontal lines that are curved in the direction of the body. This is a good way to add natural-looking segments in clothing. Now you can have more areas to color!

BY MEI YU

5.
Use a dark pen or marker
to ink your final lineart.

This is a nice outfit for a character who's cool and collected. He could be the peacekeeper of his friend group, the strong and silent type, or the wise, mature one that everyone else looks to in times of trouble.

How to Draw Sample Lesson

from:

Own your copy!

Explore 100+ Books:
amazon.com/shop/MeiYu

available at amazon

Mei Yu's
Book Store